

REPRODUCTION AND USE POLICY

The Portsmouth Athenaeum is a private, not-for-profit membership library, which makes available reproductions from our collections for personal, educational and commercial use. In consideration for this, reproduction and use fees will be assessed to offset the costs of acquiring, cataloguing and preserving these materials.

- ❑ If an image is used solely for non-commercial, personal or research purposes, a statement must be signed to that effect.
- ❑ Requests for images should be as specific as possible. If possible, the online catalog should be searched and the identification number provided.
- ❑ The images may not be altered or manipulated beyond the requirements of normal enhancement or cropping.
- ❑ The Athenaeum requests that it receive at least one copy of any publication containing reproductions of its materials.

Using reproductions of materials from the Portsmouth Athenaeum's collections without written permission is illegal except in circumstances allowed by fair use per United States copyright laws.

Credit

All photographic and image reproductions must carry the Athenaeum's credit line which should read: Courtesy of the Portsmouth Athenaeum. If known the particular collection or photographer should also be cited.

Copyright

The Athenaeum does not offer exclusive rights to any user, publisher, author or photographer and assumes no responsibility for duplication of subjects by others or any responsibility for claims by third parties. It is the user's responsibility to obtain permission from any third party rights holder.

The Portsmouth Athenaeum reserves the right to modify or deny requests for images and reproductions.
